Author and Endowed Professor/Director of the DB Reinhart Institute for Ethics in Leadership, Viterbo University

ETHICAL DECISION MAKING UNDER PRESSURE

THURSDAY, MAY 20TH
11:30 AM – 12:30 PM | VIRTUAL PRESENTATION

MAKING SPACE FOR ETHICS

ROBERT CURBEAM

SVP - Space Capture, Maxar Technologies

Former NASA Astronaut and Retired Captain in the U.S. Navy

*Record Holder for Most Spacewalks
During a Single Spaceflight*

Robert Curbeam has had experiences most people can only dream of - flying space shuttle missions, completing space walks, and soaring through the sky in U.S. Navy Fighter Weapons. Now, Curbeam now uses the foundations of his U.S. Navy and NASA training and experience to inform his decisions in the corporate world. Join us to hear his incredible journey from Baltimore, Maryland to outer space and back, as well as the lessons in ethics he's learned along the way.

KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- The importance of honesty and how it affects others.
- Sharing information with transparency and accuracy with the belief that you are a vital source of data to your organization.
- How leaders who support ethical behavior can reinforce that same behavior within employees.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS:

Robert Curbeam is the Senior Vice President for Space Capture at Maxar Technologies. Prior to joining Maxar, he served in a variety of functional and profit and loss roles at Northrop Grumman, Raytheon, and the ARES Corporation.

Prior to his work in the corporate world, Curbeam was a NASA astronaut, flying three space shuttle missions and completing seven spacewalks. He also held a wide range of positions with NASA, including the Director of Safety, Reliability, and Quality Assurance for the Constellation program, deputy director of Flight Crew Operations and Spacecraft Communicator (CAPCOM) branch chief. Curbeam also served as second-in-command for safety across the entire agency as Deputy Associate Administrator of Safety and Mission Assurance at NASA headquarters.

Curbeam is a retired Captain, having served 23 years in the United States Navy. He is a graduate of the Navy Fighter Weapons School (TOPGUN) and the U.S. Navy Test Pilot School. He was the lead project officer for the F-14 Air-to-Ground Weapons Separation Flight Test Program, and has logged more than 3,000 flight hours in 25 different aircraft and spacecraft.

Curbeam holds the Degree of Aeronautical Engineer and a Master of Science degree in aeronautical engineering, both from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. He received his bachelor's degree with merit in aerospace engineering from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. He also serves as the Chairman of the Board for the Challenger Center for Space Science Education, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Association of Naval Aviation.

GENERAL PROGRAM DISCLAIMERS:

LEGAL: Members of the Oklahoma Business Ethics Consortium frequently share information concerning various issues and developments that may have legal implications. The discussions, commentary, and handouts at Consortium meetings or presentations to other organizations are for general informational purposes only. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Adopted July, 2004

To ensure that the Consortium fosters positive characteristics of integrity in the successful achievement of its goals, these Guiding Principles were discussed and adopted (with revisions) during a milestone planning session held by Consortium leaders in Stroud on June 18, 2004. These principles were developed based on the Character First's values and philosophies.

RESPONSIBILITY TO SELF AND OTHERS

Service

- Passion for promoting ethics and integrity
- Encouraging the promotion of ethical behavior through personal actions and
- Sharing ideas and resources
- Responsibility and accountability for fulfilling the mission of the Consortium.

Collaboration

- Achievement of common goals through the promotion of ethical, mutually beneficial relationships
- Service to the Consortium over promotion of self-interest
- Cooperation emphasized over competition in promoting ethical business conduct
- Members collaborate by being constructively engaged in discussions regarding ethics
- Seeking consensus in interactive discussions regarding ethical matters.

Respect

- Members may become aware of confidential information shared by others in an effort to determine an ethical course of action. We ask members to be sensitive in recognizing and respecting the efforts made toward achieving ethical behavior. In that vein, public disclosure of this information is discouraged.
- We respect other members and the process by:
 - Exhibiting listening skills and actively listening to discussions
 - Being open to other points of view and outcomes
- We are an inclusive organization and demonstrate this by welcoming members who are in different stages of learning as applied to ethical behavior.

LEAD WITH INTEGRITY

Dependability

- Members are asked to demonstrate their support of this initiative by consistently attending meetings.

Initiative

- Recruiting other members who have demonstrated a desire to promote ethical behavior in their organizations.
- Recognizing what needs to be done to help promote the Mission of the Consortium and taking action to assist in that effort.

Honor

- Members are asked to honor the Consortium through the practice of integrity and ethical behavior in their business dealings.
- We express gratefulness to our hosts, sponsors and speakers; as well as to those whose volunteer service makes OK Ethics a stronger organization.
- Realizing that each of us is in a mode of continual learning, we demonstrate humility, care and compassion when sharing our thoughts and knowledge.

Courage

- Speak the truth with confidence and encourage others to do the same.

INSPIRE TRUST

We serve and promote the cause of truth with integrity, objectivity and fairness to all persons.

- We hold ourselves accountable by consistently honoring our word.
- We extend trust abundantly to those who have earned it.
- Trust, once earned, will not be taken for granted, manipulated or abused.
